ASSEMBLY

PREAMBLE

Having absolute belief in the omnipotent God, the first cause and mindful of the fact that no assembly exists without rules and Laws; we the members of the legislative assembly of UMaT SRC.

Recalling the oath of affirmation of the legislative assembly to bear true faith and allegiance to the SRC, uphold, preserve, protect and defend the SRC constitution and faithfully and conscientiously discharge the duties of a member of the legislative assembly.

Conscious on appointed or elected representatives of the students according to the SRC constitution that we are to render selfless service to the students of UMaT and not convert these privileged positions to serve our private or personal interests:

Clear in our minds that the trust and confidence of the students lie in the legislative assembly:

Having a common understanding of the ethical standards and code of conduct and rules that members of the legislative assembly must uphold and abide:

Complying with the provision of Chapter three, article 7 of the UMaT SRC constitution:

Believing that the transparency; good and smart leadership lie on the pillars of trust:

In view of improving competence and accountability in the management of UMaT-SRC

HEREBY ADOPT AND GIVE OURSELVES THESE STANDING ORDERS

INTRODUCTION

This document takes its power from Article 17 clause (2) of the SRC Constitution which gives the sole mandate of implementation and making of Bye-laws and Acts to the Legislative Assembly. The members of the first Legislative Assembly of the 12th Substantive Council of the Students' Representative Council of the University of Mines and Technology (UMaT), Tarkwa Ghana on the 13th June, 2017 decided to formally establish the standing orders for the members of the Legislative Assembly of the UMaT SRC.

Subsequently, a special committee was initiated to submit a draft of standing orders for the consideration of the house that will be binding on the members of the L.A.

The committee in its effort to effectively accomplish its task made up of the standing orders of the 6th parliament of Ghana; standing orders of the various Universities in Ghana; the constitution of the UMaT SRC, the University Statutes and other relevant law documents. The views of members, some concerned students and other relevant documents.

The purpose of these standing orders lays emphasis on the principle that members must at all time conducts themselves in a manner that will maintain and strengthen the trust and integrity of the Legislative Assembly;

Therefore, members should never undertake any action that will bring the L.A and its members into disrepute;

The standing orders for the members of the L.A reflects the “seven principles of public life” such as selflessness, integrity, openness and leadership and further stresses on the principles of loyalty to the UMaT-SRC and the SRC constitution.

In the drafting of these standing orders, the committee advised we should be close as possible to the standard of the parliament of Ghana; the political and ethical context of our University and the house of the L.A. These standing orders are the outcome of the committee.
